

Klik-It II Model C8816

Direct Burial Splice Kit for 2,4 and 5 Pair Cables

The Klick-it II has a positive latch that "clicks" firmly shut
The Klick-it II closure design allows installer to visually confirm the splice before burial
Both halves of the Klick-It II are filled with grease, ensuring that all the splice work is protected

- 1 The Klick-It closure design allows the craft person to visually confirm the splice arrangement before burial.
- 2 Klick-It has a positive latch that "clicks" firmly shut.
- 3 Both halves of the Klick-It are filled with grease, ensuring that all the splice work is protected.

Major Features and Benefits of the Klick-It

Features:	Benefits:
Rugged plastic housing.	Durable in the field.
"Clicks" tightly closed.	Installer is confident that the splice is closed before it is buried.
Fast, efficient design.	Saves time and labor.
Grease-type re-enterable encapsulant.	Splice can be modified.
Encapsulant requires no pouring or mixing.	No mess involved.
Water-resistant.	Prevents corrosion/electrical shorts.
Available to accommodate butt or in-line splice.	Meets your specific needs.
Various sizes from two to twenty-five pair.	Meets your specific needs.
Shrink-wrap packaging preserves shelf-life.	Long shelf life prevents
Bonding hardware included.	Easy to use all-in-one product.
Excellent strain relief.	Cable will not pull-out
	Ensures reliability.